FATHER MY GREATEST LEGACY

"AT THE HEART OF EVERYTHING I DO—FROM BUILDING BUSINESSES TO CREATING ART—IS THE DESIRE TO SHOW MY DAUGHTERS WHAT'S POSSIBLE WHEN YOU LIVE WITH PURPOSE AND LEAD WITH LOVE."

Among all the titles I've held—visionary, creator, CEO—the one I cherish most is Dad. Being a father to my two daughters, Seven Knowledge and Solei Seven, is not just a role—it's a calling, a privilege, and the most meaningful part of my journey.

For the past two years, I've embraced the incredible responsibility of raising them as a single parent. Every morning, during our 16-minute ride to the bus stop, I teach them about history, culture, and the importance of being thoughtful, intelligent, and kind in this world. These lessons aren't just about preparing them for school—they're about preparing them for life. Fatherhood is where I find my balance. It grounds me and reminds me of what truly matters: raising a generation that is brave enough to dream big and wise enough to build their own paths.
